

RENCO BRAND BATTERY WARRANTY

RENCO warrants that its batteries are free of factory defects in material and workmanship.

- This warranty applies to RENCO brand batteries only.
- This warranty applies only when the battery is used in an application where it is equal to or greater than the vehicle manufacturer's recommended size and capacity and is installed with a proper hold-down.
- This warranty is void if the container, covers or terminals are broken; if the battery has been totally discharged, overcharged, or otherwise damaged due to abuse or neglect. This includes such abuse as collision, fire, explosion, wreckage, improper installation or damage due to a faulty electrical system.
- A merely discharged battery is not defective.
- Warranty adjustments are based on the original purchase price.

ONE YEAR BATTERIES:

If the battery is found to be defective within the first month after the date of purchase the battery will be replaced free of charge. After one month and for the remainder of the 12 month warranty period the original purchaser may obtain a pro-rated credit toward the purchase of a new RENCO battery. The credit will be proportional to the amount of time remaining in the original warranty period as follows:

$$\text{Original Purchase Price} \times \text{Remaining Months}/12 \text{ Months.} \quad (1)$$

TWO YEAR BATTERIES:

If the battery is found to be defective within the first year after the date of purchase the battery will be replaced free of charge. After one year and for the remainder of the 24 month warranty period the original purchaser may obtain a pro-rated credit toward the purchase of a new RENCO battery. The credit will be proportional to the amount of time remaining in the original warranty period as follows:

$$\text{Original Purchase Price} \times \text{Remaining Months}/24 \text{ Months.} \quad (2)$$
